MEMORANDUM FOR:
Special Assistant, DDO

SUBJECT : Request by Senate Judiciary Internal Security Subcommittee to Publish an Agency Pamphlet as a Subcommittee Document

1. David Martin, Senate Judiciary Internal Security Subcommittee staff, has over the years been given a copy of the unclassified Agency publication "Facts about Internal Front Organizations." The pamphlet carries no attribution to CIA and is used by the Subcommittee purely for background in their research. Martin felt it would serve a very useful purpose if the Subcommittee could issue as a Subcommittee document the substance of the Agency pamphlet supplemented by information now in Subcommittee files. He noted that this was done in the past by the publication "Soviet Intelligence and Security Services 1964-1970" which the Subcommittee printed in 1972, based on information provided by the Agency to the Subcommittee with no attribution to CIA.

2. Would you please advise whether or not any arrangement could be made with the Subcommittee for this proposed publication. I made no commitment to Martin but it seems that the published document could be given broader utilization under the aegis of the Congress rather than the CIA pamphlet which carries no attribution and is difficult to be referenced in an annotated bibliography.
